Maine and Vermont.

The Whigs have acted miserably in the recent elections in these States. In Maine the Locofocos have elected their Governor and six out of seven Congressmen. In the Kenuebec district, Morse is defented. In Vermont, there is no election of Governor by the people; but both branches of the Legislature are Whig and Whig State Officers will be chosen. The division on the Lir cence question has caused this falling off in the gone down, it is true; but Greely thinks that it ought not to get so near the horizon.
